Michelle Hummel and her company, Web Strategy Plus, know social media inside and out. Not only is she skilled in her field, Michelle Hummel's ability to educate others about this subject is extraordinary. She simplifies complex topics so that even the novice can understand and implement. Having spoken at one of Ms. Hummel's events, I also know that she is a pleasure with whom to work

Michelle's team at Web Strategy Plus team has been a dream to work with as our Social Media Management Company! They are very quick to respond, reliable and they always have great ideas. I wish all my points of contact for our business accounts were as easy to work with. Two thumbs up to the Web Strategy Plus team!! found Roberto to be an excellent trainer and speaker. He can engage the audience well, was energetic, communicate clearly and get the message across skillfully. Despite being in a leadership position for many years, I found the training very beneficial in building my leadership skills.
